Faith Formation
Registration

Are you being called to share your faith with our young Church? A catechist is needed for 1st & 2nd grade. Contact Craig in the Faith Formation Office for details.

Welcome! In Baptism, the child, freed from original sin, becomes an heir to the Kingdom of God, receiving the theological virtues of faith, hope, and charity, and the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit. Through Baptism, the child becomes a member of the Body of Christ and has access to the other sacraments. Please contact Craig at cmazur@stmarynativity.org or at (815) 726-4031.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BEING AN ALTAR SERVER?

Altar servers are a silent witness to the mysteries of the altar. Their action in the liturgy draws people deeper into the mystical realities of the Sacrifice of Jesus. Altar Servers are very necessary for the liturgy.

We are seeking altar servers to assist the priests in the celebration of Sunday Masses, Weddings, Funerals and other special Liturgical events.

All children in grades 4 and above are invited to be Altar Servers. Please complete the section below and return to the Church or school Office. Training will be scheduled soon!

As a parent/guardian for: _____

in grade _____, I hereby grant permission for him/her to be an altar server

Calling all Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of the Holy Eucharist:

All existing ministers and new members discerning to join either of these ministries are requested to attend a training/refresher on

Thursday, September 12, 2024
6 PM at St. Mary Nativity Church.

The lector has the honor to proclaim the Word of God to the congregation at each Mass. The lector should have a good understanding of the scripture passages and then successfully communicate them to the congregation.

Ordinary ministers of the Holy Eucharist are the priests and deacons. Assisting the clergy to distribute Holy Communion during Mass is the service of Extraordinary ministers. There is no ministry in the Church that holds a greater responsibility or privilege!

These ministries require a loving commitment.

Fr. Clive will facilitate necessary training for both ministries or a refresher for existing ministers.

If you have a calling to use your gifts and talents in this way or have any questions, contact Craig at cmazur@stmarynativity.org.

Catholic Kids Column BE OPEN

In today's Gospel, Jesus heals a man who was both deaf and had a speech impediment. Imagine how hard life must have been for him. He couldn't hear the voices of his family, friends, or community, and he couldn't clearly express himself either. Communication, something we often take for granted, was a constant struggle for him. But when Jesus commands the man's ears to be opened, everything changes. Suddenly, he can hear and speak plainly. His world opens up in ways he probably never imagined.

God also wants to communicate with us, just as He did with this man. But sometimes, like the deaf man, we have our own issues that make it hard for us to hear what God is saying. It might not be a physical problem, but there are definitely things that can block us from truly listening to God's voice. These obstacles can make it difficult for us to understand God's Word and His plan for our lives.

One of the most common reasons we struggle to hear God is because we're simply too busy. We have so much going on—school, sports, hobbies, friends, social media—that we don't make time to listen to God. We might pray quickly before meals or at bedtime, but often we're just rushing through it, not really pausing to hear what God might be saying to us.

Another reason we might not hear God is because of our prejudices or preconceptions. We might think we already know what God is going to say, so we don't even bother to listen. We think we have the answers, so we stop listening. But God often speaks in unexpected ways, and if we're not open, we might miss out on something important He's trying to communicate with us.

Being open to God's voice is a journey. It takes time, patience, and a willingness to let go of our own plans. But as we grow in our ability to listen to God and share His Word, we'll find that our relationship with Him deepens, and our lives become more aligned with His will. So take the time to be open, listen, and let God speak to your heart.

FORMED

THE CATHOLIC FAITH.
ON DEMAND.

This first full-length feature movie on Augustine uses a historic backdrop to tell the true story of one of the Church's most beloved and well-known Saints. Its message of sin, conversion, redemption is as timely today as it was in the 5th century of Augustine. It is the story of a gifted man who pursues fame and fortune without a moral compass - and the dramatic changes that occur in his soul when challenging events lead him to see the light of truth. It also chronicles the collapse of the Roman world and how Augustine laid the intellectual foundations of what became Europe.

THE NINE MONTHS OF THE CHILD, JESUS IN THE WOMB OF MARY

Each year on December 25th, we celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. For centuries the Church has also celebrated his conception on *March 25, the feast of the Annunciation. (*Even though the feast of the Annunciation is designated as April 8th of 2024, we will continue to use the March 25th date. This will make our Christmas gift to our lord timely.) Our parishes have once again begun our 'Spiritual Adoption" program. Each month we will keep you up to date with the development of your baby.

THE FIFTH MONTH – AUGUST 25 TO SEPTEMBER 25

Mary now feels the quickening of the Child Jesus that proclaims his presence within her womb. She sings to him and feels his response. At six months, a special covering (vernix) forms to protect the baby's skin from the fetal waters. The baby's eyes, closed since the seventh week, are now open to its surroundings. The infant is now 12 inches long and weighs 1 ½ pounds. This baby could survive birth. Despite the fact that a child of six months has a chance at life, women may legally abort their unborn at any time throughout the nine months of their pregnancy. Pray for all physicians, midwives and nurses that they may recognize the sanctity of life and God as the author of life.

"I don't have time for this!" These were the words that were on replay in my head as I drove from Joliet to Mundelein Seminary a few weeks ago. I was headed to a 3-1/2 day regional retreat for all the bishops from Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin. In my justified view, my saturated work schedule simply did not leave any room for this spiritual "indulgence." Yet, motivated mostly by duty, I checked into my room and asked the Lord to help me check my bad attitude at the door.

As God would have it, my prayer was immediately answered. We were introduced to our retreat director, Reverend Ron Rolheiser, OMI. You may know of him. He is a Catholic priest, theology professor and prolific author. You might be familiar with a number of his books on spirituality, the most popular entitled "The Holy Longing."

One of his thought-provoking talks was about the Sabbath. He reminded us that the Sabbath is a day of rest and religious observance that is rooted in the biblical creation narrative, where God rested on the seventh day after creating the world. Henceforth, by God resting on the seventh day, this day of rest was declared and ordained for everyone, forever.

Practically, in Judaism, the Sabbath begins at sunset on Friday and ends at nightfall on Saturday, during which work is prohibited. The Sabbath is devoted to rest, prayer, and family. For Catholics, we honor the seventh day on Sunday, commemorating the resurrection of Jesus, with a focus on worship and rest. Even the word "Sabbatical" comes from the word "Sabbath."

Father Rolheiser tested us: "How many of your flock truly take Sundays as a day of worship and rest?" "How many of them have replaced worship and rest with work, shopping, sports, entertainment or traveling?" Then he questioned, "Bishops, how many of your Sundays include not only worship, but also some rest? Hmmm?"

Father provided us with some simple and clear guidance of what sabbath time should look like in Catholic life and culture. I found it enlightening, and so I'll share:

1. Rest: We live in a 24/7 culture. We are busy all the time. If God rested on the seventh day, then so too shall we who are made in His image and likeness. We each need to take a day to rest and recharge our batteries.

2. Change it up: Sunday is a special day to stop all the ordinary things in our lives and do something unordinary. The Sabbath is an invitation to do something that you do not do during the week. And what we do or don't do will be different for each of us depending on our different lives and circumstances. For example, if you work in an office all week, it might be good on Sunday to go outside, cut the grass and work in your garden. Whereas if you are a farmer, you might prefer one day away from your fields, lawn, and garden to instead sit inside and read a book. The point is to stop what we typically do throughout the week and take one day to do something unordinary, or even extraordinary.
3. Celebrate: Sabbath is a time for special celebrations. Years ago, the Sabbath was the day to stop normal work, take a bath, put on your best clothes, go to mass, come home, and eat a big dinner at the dining room table with family and friends. These days, we may not dress up in fancy clothes and our meals might be simpler or taken at a restaurant, yet we can all make sure that attending Sunday mass is always part of our Sunday celebrations.

Do you ever echo my words, "I have no time for this!" It is all too easy to use that excuse in the busyness of our weeks. But then we risk becoming workaholic, burned out machines who have no "off-switch" or downtime. At the end of my 3-1/2 days of sabbath time at the bishops' retreat, I thanked God for leading me to the precious time to pray, reflect, sleep, read, learn, walk around the grounds, and socialize.

We all need – in fact, instinctively crave- sabbath time! So please join me by reflecting on your own life and asking yourself, "How do I honor the Sabbath?" You may realize your Sundays still need to include some work, shopping, sports, entertainment or traveling. But please don't let those activities replace participating in Sunday Mass. Treat yourself, every Sunday, to the greatest gift Jesus gave us: the Eucharist. Nourished and refreshed by the Eucharist and celebrating our faith as a community, we can be energized to go out living our faith in the world on the road to salvation.
