Prayers for Our Beloved Deceased.

We offer sympathy and the promise of our prayers to the family and friends of:

Darlene M. Bistry
William Wysocki

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord; and let the perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

LENTEN DISCIPLINES OF FASTING & ABSTINENCE

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.

O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unfailing care,
grant in your boundless fatherly love
a pastor for your Church of Joliet who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Remember the Holy Souls in Purgatory this Lent while participating in the Stations of the Cross!

"If a ray of heavenly light could draw aside the veil from your eyes, you would see these suffering souls hovering around each station with upraised arms imploring you, 'Have pity on me, have pity on me! In Pity for us, make the Way of the Cross for me, your father your mother, your Friend.'

The Seven Last Words of Christ with Adoration and Reconciliation March 24, 2026—6 PM

The reflection will be followed with Reconciliation at 7 PM. Priests will be available for individual confessions.

LENT

Pray + Fast + Give

Calling all penitents! Lent is here, and it is time to decide how you will use this Lenten Season to prepare for Easter. There bulletin board in the Nativity Room displays the three pillars of Lent: Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving. At the back of the church are slips of paper for each pillar. Please prayerfully consider how you can focus on one, two or all three of these facets this year. Fill out a slip with words or a picture and place it in the corresponding bag in the Nativity Room. These will be brought forward with the offertory on Palm Sunday. Thank you for your commitment to making this your best Lent.

Dear Parishioners, We would like to invite you to continue fanning the flames of the Eucharistic Revival alongside fellow parishioners through the brand-new 8-part small-group study, The Heart of Prayer. This study was created by the National Eucharistic Congress in partnership with the Augustine Institute and designed as an intimate, peaceful retreat, led by Bishop Andrew Cozzens. Through his practical, down-to-earth guidance, participants will learn to quiet their hearts and minds to hear God's voice calling to them.

Thursdays after the 8:30 AM Mass in the Nativity Room beginning on February 26th.

Donuts and Coffee will be available!

If you're looking to provide a spark in your prayer life, then this is the study for you! We really hope you'll join us!

Catholic Kids Column Fighting Distractions

Let's talk about temptation. Not the big, movie-style kind with dramatic music and flashing lights. I mean the everyday stuff. The kind that slips into your life quietly. It shows up when you're bored. When you're tired. When you're feeling left out, angry, or unsure of yourself. Temptation is sneaky. It doesn't always look bad. In fact, it often looks like something that will make you feel better fast. That's how the enemy works. He doesn't show up looking scary. He shows up looking helpful—like a shortcut.

In the gospel today, Jesus goes out into the desert. He's not there for a short trip. He spends forty days fasting and praying. That's a long time. He's alone. He's hungry. He's physically weak. And that's exactly when the devil comes to tempt him. The enemy waits until Jesus is tired and vulnerable. He knows that's when it's easiest to mess with someone's heart and mind. Sound familiar? That's often when we're tempted too.

The first temptation the devil throws at Jesus is about comfort. He says, "Turn these stones into bread." Jesus is starving. He easily could have done what the devil asked. But he doesn't. He says, "Man does not live by bread alone." In other words, Jesus knows there's more to life than just filling our stomachs or chasing after comfort. Think about when you're stressed or tired—do you reach for your phone, snacks, or a show to make you feel better? It's easy to want a quick fix. But Jesus reminds us that those things don't really feed our souls. Only God can do that.

Then comes the second temptation. The devil takes Jesus to the top of the temple and says, "Jump off. God will catch you." It sounds strange, but it's really about showing off. The devil is tempting Jesus to make a big, flashy move so that everyone will notice him. But Jesus says, "Don't test God." Sometimes we want to do things just to get attention. We want to be noticed. We want the likes, the praise, the spotlight. Maybe we post something online just to get approval. Or we act a certain way in front of others to look cool. But Jesus doesn't play that game. He knows who he is without having to prove anything to anyone. That's a lesson we all need.

The third temptation is about control. The devil shows Jesus all the kingdoms of the world and says, "Worship me, and I'll give it all to you." He's offering Jesus power, success, and fame. But Jesus says no again. He says, "Worship God alone." Our world tells us that being important is what matters. Being popular. Being first. Being in charge. But Jesus teaches something different. He says it's better to serve than to rule. It's better to be faithful than to be famous. That's not always an easy message to follow, but it's the one that leads to real joy.

So what does all this mean for you? It means the enemy still tries the same tricks today. He wants to distract you from what's good. He wants to pull you away from God. He'll use anything—comfort, attention, power. But Jesus shows us a better way. He faces each temptation with prayer and Scripture. He stays close to God. He doesn't argue with the devil. He doesn't panic. He just stays steady and focused on what matters most.

And you can too. Temptation isn't something you beat by being perfect. You fight it by staying connected to Jesus. Read Scripture. Pray honestly. Talk to people you trust. Stay close to the truth. When you feel pulled toward something that feels good but isn't right, stop and think. Ask yourself: what would Jesus do? He wouldn't just follow his feelings. He'd follow the Father.

Jesus knows what it's like to be tempted. He's been there. He understands. And he's not far away—he's right with you, ready to help you through it. You're never alone in this fight. Stay strong. Stay close to God. And remember, even in your weakest moments, Jesus is with you. He's already shown you the way.
